The 21st International Latino Book Awards Finalists

Latino Literacy Now is proud to be once again part of the ALA Annual Convention because librarians celebrate diversity. At Latino Literacy Now's booth #813B, there will be some of the many Award Winning Authors we have honored throughout the years. Here is a complete list of the finalists for the 2019 International Latino Book Awards.

The International Latino Book Awards is a major reflection that the fastest growing group in the USA has truly arrived. The Awards are now by far the largest Latino cultural Awards in the USA and with the 261 finalists this year in 95 categories, it has now honored the greatness of 2,897 authors and publishers over the past two decades. The size of the Awards is proof that books by and about Latinos are in high demand. In 2019 Latinos will purchase over $725 million in books in English and Spanish.

The 2019 Finalists for the 21st Annual International Latino Book Awards are another reflection of the growing quality of books by and about Latinos. About a third of the winners were from major U.S. and int'l publishers, a third from medium sized publishing houses, and a third were from small publishing houses or even self published. In order to handle this large number of books, the Awards had 227 judges in 2019. The judges shared how hard it was because there are now so many great books being published. Judges included librarians, educators, media professionals, leaders of national organizations, Pulitzer Prize Winners, and even elected officials. The Awards celebrates books in English, Spanish and Portuguese. Finalists are from across the USA and Puerto Rico, as well as from 18 other countries.

The Awards are produced by Latino Literacy Now, a nonprofit organization co-founded in 1997 by Edward James Olmos and Kirk Whisler. Other Latino Literacy Now programs include the upcoming Latino Book & Family Festival at MiraCosta College in Oceanside will be our 67th. The International Society of Latino Authors now has 140+ members. Education Begins in the Home has impacted literacy for 100,000+ people. More than 70 episodes of the Latino Reads Podcast have now aired. The Award Winning Author Tour has 10+ events around the USA in the coming year. Latino Literacy Now's programs have now touched well over a million people. Over 350 volunteers will donate 14,000+ hours of service this year.

The Awards Ceremony will be held September 21, 2019 in Los Angeles at the Los Angeles City College. Past sponsors have included AALES, American Library Association, Atria Publishing, Book Expo America, California State University System, California State University Dominguez Hills, California State University San Bernardino, Entravision, Las Comadres de las Americas, Libros Publishing, Los Angeles Community College District, MAOF, MiraCosta College, Piping Industry Progress & Education Trust Fund, REFORMA, Scholastic Books, and Visa.

Here's a complete list of the finalists:

Los International Latino Book Awards número 21 reflejan la llegada del grupo en crecimiento más grande en Estado Unidos. Estos reconocimientos se han convertido en los más grandes reconocimientos culturales a los Latinos en los Estados Unidos. Con nuestros 261 finalistas de este año en 95 categorías, hemos reconocido la grandeza de 2,897 autores y editoriales en las últimas dos décadas. El gran tamaño de nuestros reconocimientos son una prueba de que los libros escritos por y para Latinos están en gran demanda. En el 2019, los Latinos gastarán más de $725 millones en libros en inglés y español.

Los finalistas de este año reflejan la creciente calidad de los libros escritos por y para Latinos. Una tercera parte de los ganadores pertenecen a las principales editoriales en Estados Unidos y mercados internacionales, una tercera parte a editoriales de tamaño medio, y la última tercera parte a editoriales pequeñas o libros auto-publicados. Este año 2019, 227 jueces participaron en el proceso de evaluación de todos los libros participantes. Los jueces compartieron que no fue un proceso fácil el elegir a los ganadores debido a la gran calidad de todos los libros. Los jueces estuvieron conformados por bibliotecarios, educadores, profesionales de los medios, líderes de organizaciones nacionales, ganadores de Pulitzer Prize, y hasta oficiales electos. Los reconocimientos incluyen libros escritos en inglés, español y portugués. Los finalistas son de alrededor de Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico al igual que de otros 18 países.

Estos reconocimientos son producidos por Latino Literacy Now, una organización sin fines de lucro que se fundó en 1997 por Edward James Olmos y Kirk Whisler. Otros programas incluyen el Latino Book & Family Festival (67 hasta la fecha), International Society of Latino Authors (con más de 140 miembros), Education Begins in the Home (ha impactado a más de 100,000 personas con libros), Latino Reads Podcast (tiene más de 70 episodios al aire), y el Award Winning Author Tour (participará en más de 10 eventos el año entrante). Los programas de Latino Literacy Now han impactado a más de un millón de personas. Más de 350 voluntarios donarán más de 14,000 horas de servicio comunitario este año.

La ceremonia de reconocimientos se llevará a cabo el 21 de septiembre del 2019 en Los Angeles City College. Patrocinadores de este evento han incluido AALES, American Library Association, Atria Publishing, Book Expo America, California State University System, California State University Dominguez Hills, California State University San Bernardino, Entravision, Las Comadres de las Americas, Libros Publishing, Los Angeles Community College District, MAOF, MiraCosta College, Piping Industry Progress & Education Trust Fund, REFORMA, Scholastic Books, y Visa.
